Keeping Up with Deadlines

Suggested timeframe of completion: February 1- May 15

There are many moving pieces when it comes to preparing for life after high school. If you're planning on continuing your education immediately after graduation there are many deadlines to track. For instance, did you know nearly all schools have unique application deadlines? There are various scholarships deadlines and following acceptance, deadlines for enrollment, registration, and housing decisions.

One way to keep yourself on track is to create a list or a table of your top schools and scholarships with their associated deadlines. Use Next Step's Application Tracker to keep track of your top three schools and top three scholarship deadlines.

Application Tracker

Did you remember to save a copy of the Next Steps's Application Tracker to your google drive or other safe place that you can access at a later time?

No

Excel documents aren't the only way to keep track of deadlines. What are three other tools/techniques you could incorporate to help you keep up with your college application and scholarship deadlines?

	Tools
1
2
3

Mark As Complete

No