Plans after High School

Suggested timeframe of completion: January 1- March 1

Having a career plan or, at this point in your journey, some idea of the career path you want to pursue after high school is important to your success. A clear action plan for your future will help you stay focused and will make you more likely to complete the education or training needed to enter the workforce in the shortest amount of time.

Take a second to think about what you want to pursue, then select the education amount or career pathway that reflects your vision.
