Overload and Dual Credit Courses: What are they?

Suggested timeframe of completion: February 1- May 15

The state of Idaho gives every high school student the opportunity to take extra or dual credit courses to fast-track high school completion through a program called Advanced Opportunities. Typically, students will start taking dual credit courses in 10th grade.

Check out this video to learn more

Have you heard of Advanced Opportunities before watching this video?

No

Do you plan on taking overload/dual credit courses in high school?

- Select -

Mark As Complete

No